Courtyard by Marriott General Manager Receives St. Cloud Area Chamber Diversity Award

St. Cloud, Minn. – Chriss Wohlleber, general manager at Courtyard by Marriott – St. Cloud, was awarded the St. Cloud Area Chamber of Commerce Diversity Award for her substantial efforts to promote a community business environment that is free from bias and discrimination.

The Chamber’s Diversity Recognition acknowledges the exceptional efforts of area businesses and representatives whose visible efforts foster greater appreciation, advancement and celebration of diversity and inclusiveness in the Central Minnesota business community.

At its core, the Marriott believes in actively working to build and maintain a diverse atmosphere. Through training programs and events, the Courtyard intentionally sends the message that it takes the individual contributions of many, to make one successful company.

Over the 20+ years of Wohlleber’s leadership, the Marriott has employed people from over 15 countries, including men and women of all ages. The hotel staff is encouraged to acknowledge holidays from across the globe, including Dia de los Muertos, Diwali, and Thanksgiving, to name a few. Interactive social media posts recognize, celebrate, and educate staff and visitors on these and many other holidays.

Wohlleber accepted the Diversity Award at the community’s 9th Annual Diversity Conference on April 23 at the College of Saint Benedict in the Gorecki Center, St. Joseph, MN, 56374.

Honorable mentions submitted for the Chamber’s Diversity Award include: Tammy Biery, executive director at Career Solutions; the Paramount Center for the Arts; the Initiative Foundation “Enterprise Academy” program; and Preferred Credit, Inc.

The St. Cloud Area Chamber of Commerce is the voice of business in Central Minnesota. Supported and led by members and a professional staff, we create, enhance and support a healthy business environment for our members.
