BERGANKDV EARNS 2019 HUMAN CAPITAL MANAGEMENT PARTNER OF THE YEAR AWARD FROM KRONOS

During the Kronos 12th Annual Partner Community Workshop in Orlando, Florida last week, BerganKDV was presented with the 2019 Human Capital Management Partner of the Year award. The award, which is the top award given at the conference, is based on exceptional year-over-year growth, operational excellence and a consistent top-ten ranking within the Kronos network.

Following the award ceremony, President Earl Edeburn was interviewed by Kronos. You may view the interview here. In his comments, Edeburn expressed his excitement for the award and applauded the human capital management team at BerganKDV. “We give a huge thank you to the team at Kronos for helping us be successful,” said Edeburn, “At BerganKDV, we have excellent team members from sales to implementation and support which helps our clients during not only the decision making stage but also during the onboarding and utilization phases. Our goal is to provide a platform that empowers employees and managers to complete their work from anyplace, at any time.”

The annual Kronos Workforce Ready Partner Network Partner Community Workshop is the largest human capital management (HCM) conference curated specifically for national payroll service bureaus, human resource advisors and top accounting firms that provide HCM services and solutions.

Kronos Workforce Ready Partner Network Director Mike Grzegorek said, “Workforce Ready partners love Kronos because we offer so much more than a product: We’re focused on delivering a highly differentiated experience that helps our partners grow their businesses. We’re successful when partners like BerganKDV and their customers are successful. BerganKDV continues to do an outstanding job providing a great user experience. It is an honor to give this award to such a great team of people.”
