Star Tribune names Brenny Transportation, Inc. a 2019 Top 150 Workplace

Saint Joseph, MN —Brenny Transportation, Inc. has been named one of the Top 150 Workplaces in Minnesota by the Star Tribune. A complete list of those selected is available at StarTribune.com/topworkplaces2019 and will also be published in the Star Tribune Top Workplaces special section on Sunday, June 16.

Produced by the same team that compiles the 28-year-old Star Tribune 100 report of the best-performing public companies in Minnesota, Top Workplaces recognizes the most progressive companies in Minnesota based on employee opinions measuring engagement, organizational health and satisfaction. The analysis included responses from over 140,000 employees at Minnesota public, private and nonprofit organizations.

The rankings in the Star Tribune Top 150 Workplaces are based on survey information collected by Energage, an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention.

Brenny Transportation, Inc. was ranked 18th on the small company list. Brenny Transportation, Inc. has been listed in the Top Workplaces seven times in the last eight years.

“At Brenny we truly believe in our company purpose- Driven To Serve! We feel this is a huge component to our success!” Says Joyce Brenny, President, CEO and Founder.

Star Tribune Publisher Michael J. Klingensmith said, “The companies in the Star Tribune Top 150 Workplaces deserve high praise for creating the very best work environments in the state of Minnesota. My congratulations to each of these exceptional companies.”

Brenny Transportation, Inc, was founded in 1996 because Joyce and Todd Brenny wanted to be part of a company that treated people with respect, a company which honored champion character with a team driven to serve! Brenny has grown because of the company’s superior respect for their team member’s needs, as well as honoring and rewarding the hard work and dedication of their champion team members.
