Star Tribune names Brenny Transportation, Inc. a 2020 Top Workplace

Saint Joseph, MN June 24th, 2020—Brenny Transportation, Inc. has been named one of the Top Workplaces in Minnesota by the Star Tribune. A complete list of those selected is available at StarTribune.com/topworkplaces2020 and will also be published in the Star Tribune Top Workplaces special section on Sunday, June 28.

Produced by the same team that compiles the 29-year-old Star Tribune 100 report of the best-performing public companies in Minnesota, Top Workplaces recognizes the most progressive companies in Minnesota based on employee opinions measuring engagement, organizational health and satisfaction. The analysis included responses from over 76,000 employees at Minnesota public, private and nonprofit organizations.

The results of the Star Tribune Top Workplaces are based on survey information collected by Engage, an independent company specializing in employee engagement and retention.

“We are so honored to be named a Top Workplace again! Since we opened our doors in 1996, we have been saying and living: “People before profits.” We have an amazing team at Brenny that is driven to serve our customers, our community and each other. We are a family brought together by trucking!” Says Joyce Brenny, President, CEO and Founder.

Star Tribune Publisher Michael J. Klingensmith said, “The companies in the Star Tribune Top Workplaces deserve high praise for creating the very best work environments in the state of Minnesota. My congratulations to each of these exceptional companies.”

Brenny Transportation, Inc, was founded in 1996 because Joyce and Todd Brenny wanted to be part of a company that treated people with respect, a company which honored champion character with a team driven to serve! Brenny has grown because of the company’s superior respect for their team member’s needs, as well as honoring and rewarding the hard work and dedication of their champion team members.
