Kimberly Foster earns industry distinction

St. Cloud, Minn. – Financial Advisor and Chief Compliance Officer Kimberly Foster of Laraway Financial Advisors, Inc. recently earned the Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC®) designation from the American College of Financial Services.

The American College, the conferring institution, is an accredited non-profit educational institution with an 84-year heritage. With an average study time of 400 hours, the ChFC® program currently requires more courses than any other financial planning credential. Advisors frequently spend years earning the accreditation. The program emphasizes key financial planning disciplines, including insurance, income taxation, retirement planning, investments and estate planning.

Foster joined Laraway Financial in 2014 after a career as director of operations for a local financial planning firm. She studied at St. Cloud Technical & Community College and St. Cloud State University and subsequently earned securities licensures, leading her to a career in the financial services industry. Today she balances compliance responsibilities with helping clients optimize their finances through planning and education. Foster also volunteers as a recovery coach for Recovery Plus, a chemical dependency services provider.

Laraway Financial is an independent Registered Investment Advisor with its own investment process utilizing Schwab Institutional as a trading and service partner, focused on providing the right solution for each client.

Securities offered through Cambridge Investment Research, Inc., a Registered Broker/Dealer, Member FINRA/SIPC. Investment Advisory Services offered through Laraway Financial Advisors, Inc., a Registered Investment Advisor.
