Chris Wayne receives District Award of Merit

St. Cloud, Minn. – Laraway Financial Vice President and Partner Chris Wayne has been honored with Boy Scouts of America Central Minnesota Council District Award of Merit. Wayne was nominated three times for the award, which recognizes professional Scouters who render service of an outstanding nature at a district level. The service may consist of a contribution that has impacted the lives of large numbers of youth or small group over an extended period of time. He has been a lifelong active member of Boy Scouts of American since growing up in River Falls, Wis. and through his volunteerism seeks to “lead by example.”

Wayne is currently District Chair and has had many past positions including Boy Scout, Cubmaster, Pack Committee Chair, Unit Committee Chair, Eagle Scout and Recruiter for Eagle Alumni Association of the Central Minnesota Council. Wayne has two boys with wife Katie, as a family they enjoy nature through camping and fishing near Luck, Wis.

At Laraway Financial, Wayne balances his interest in investment analytics with helping clients improve their financial lives through planning and education. With over 15 years of experience in the financial industry, he exemplifies the vision and goals of Laraway Financial. “Chris is a key part of our success,” says Steve Laraway, president/CEO. “He is true to the company’s stewardship and financial values and objectives.”
