Quinlivan & Hughes Opens New Monticello Office

MONTICELLO, MN (March 29, 2018) – Quinlivan & Hughes announced today the opening of a new office in Monticello, Minnesota. The new office is located at 305 Cedar Street.

“We’ve been interested in expanding to the area for a while and saw this as a great opportunity to further invest in communities that we care about,” said Ron Brandenburg, a Quinlivan and Hughes shareholder who helped lead the office expansion and practices in the areas of business and employment law and mediation. “This enables us to help fill what we have been told is a need for comprehensive legal services in Monticello and the surrounding communities of Big Lake and Becker to Elk River and Rogers.”

The law firm, headquartered in St. Cloud, has been serving individual, business, and nonprofit clients in the Monticello community and surrounding areas for many years. Two of the attorneys who work at the Monticello office also live in the area.

“We look forward to being closer to our clients, getting more involved in the Monticello-area communities and growing our office there,” said Dyan Ebert, Chief Executive Officer of Quinlivan & Hughes.

Quinlivan & Hughes offers a comprehensive range of legal services in the areas of business and employment law, trust and estate planning, real estate law, insurance defense and government liability.

Established more than 90 years ago, Quinlivan & Hughes ranks among the oldest and largest law practices in Central Minnesota. The firm’s legal teams are known as leaders in both their industries and the community. Learn more at Quinlivan.com
