Chris Wayne joins CentraCare Investment Committee

St. Cloud, Minn. – Laraway Financial Vice President and Partner Chris Wayne joined the CentraCare Investment Committee on July 1. Community members are selected who hold subject matter expertise from varied backgrounds and serve a three-year term. The Investment Committee maintains the prudent and effective investment of CentraCare’s investment funds, formulates investment policies and manages funds.

Committee responsibilities include Sisters of the Order of Saint Benedict Retirement Pension Fund, CentraCare Operating Reserve Fund and any other investment assets of CentraCare. Meeting quarterly, members review, evaluate and make recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding Investment Policy of the Corporation and overall investment performance. Committee members are eligible to serve three, three-year terms. Wayne is past chair of the Boy Scouts of America Central Minnesota Council District has been a lifelong active member of Boy Scouts of American since growing up in River Falls, Wis. and through his volunteerism seeks to “lead by example.” He has two boys with wife, Katie Wayne. As a family they enjoy nature through camping and fishing near Luck, Wis.

Wayne balances his interest in investment analytics with helping clients improve their financial lives through planning and education. With over 16 years of experience in the financial industry, he exemplifies the vision and goals of Laraway Financial.
