Chamber President Teresa Bohnen recognized for MCCE leadership

St. Cloud, Minn. - Teresa Bohnen, president of the St. Cloud Area Chamber of Commerce, was recognized by the Minnesota Chamber of Commerce Executives (MCCE) at the annual meeting in St. Paul in January.

Bohnen accepted a plaque of recognition from MCCE board chair, Matt Kilian, for her leadership as a two-term member of the MCCE board of directors. Bohnen has served for a total of 12 years in leadership for MCCE and served as the chair of the organization in 2017. This was her second time serving on the board.

Bohnen has served as the president of the St. Cloud Area Chamber for 20 years. As president of the chamber, Bohnen focuses on building and establishing community connections, overseeing the Chamber's Board of Directors, supervising the Chamber's Government Affairs Division, and leading and managing the St. Cloud Area Chamber of Commerce and St. Cloud Convention & Visitors Bureau staff.

MCCE is the industry association for Chamber of Commerce professionals which provides professional development, training, and networking for chamber leaders in the state of Minnesota.

The St. Cloud Area Chamber of Commerce is the voice of business in Central Minnesota. Supported and led by members and a professional staff, we create, enhance and support a healthy business environment for our members.
